

Agenda

How can corporate law help under the pandemic?

Event details

Date: Thursday, 23 July 2020
 Time: 4:30pm – 6:00pm (AEST)
 Format: Virtual webinar via Microsoft Teams Live
 Hosted by: Associate Professor Charlie Weng, CIBEL, UNSW Law

Agenda

4:30pm	Welcome and introduction Associate Professor Charlie Weng          Member, Herbert Smith Freehills CIBEL Centre, UNSW Law Associate Professor Charlie Xiao-chuan Weng joined the UNSW Law faculty in 2015. Previously, he was Oriental Scholar Chair Professor of Law and Assistant Dean at the KoGuan Law School of Shanghai Jiao Tong University (SJTU). His research interest centres on law and business. His research projects were heavily supported by multiple organizations, including the World Bank and the Municipal government of Shanghai. Currently, he is especially interested in research on the law of capital markets, the fundamental theory of corporate law and is interested in employing cross-disciplinary research methodologies to analyse the impact on the real economy of changes in the law governing corporate law and financial regulation.
4:40pm	Topic: Corporate Governance Considerations for Board of Directors during the Covid-19 Crisis Associate Professor Edith I Tzu Su          National Chung Hsing University Edith I Tzu Su is an associate professor in National Chung Hsing University in Taiwan. Dr Su studied law at National Cheng Chi University in Taiwan and completed her postgraduate studies at Washington University in Saint Louis in the United States. Her research interest centres on the intersection of law and business as well as legal education and she has published widely in these fields. Her research has attracted funding support from the Ministry of Science and the Ministry of Education in Taiwan.
5:00pm	Topic: Entity Shielding and the Rule of Debt-follow-assets in China

	Assistant Professor James Zeng Chinese University of Hong Kong James Si Zeng is assistant professor of law at the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK). His research interests include corporate law and finance, economic regulation, and law and economics. He graduated from Yale Law School with an LL.M and a J.S.D. degree. He was awarded the Oscar M. Reubhausen Fund at Yale Law School for his dissertation project. Prior to that Professor Zeng graduated from Peking University (LL.B., B.A. in Economics, Mphil in Law). He has passed the National Judicial Examination of China and is admitted to the New York State Bar.
5:20pm	Topic: Corporate Meetings and COVID-19 Associate Professor Christopher Chen Chao-Hung Singapore Management University Dr. Christopher Chen is an Associate Professor of Law at the Singapore Management University (SMU). He received a Ph.D. from University of London (UCL) and LL.M. from the University of Michigan, after completing law degrees in the National Taiwan University. Dr. Chen's main research interests include financial regulation, derivatives and risk management, financial consumer protection, corporate governance and transplantation of law in Asia in broad areas of corporate, banking, insurance and financial laws. Christopher Chen has published in both English and Mandarin Chinese with publication in the U.S., U.K., Europe, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Taiwan.
5:40pm	Q&amp;A Moderator: Associate Professor Charlie Weng
5:55pm	Closing remarks